To Whom It May Concern:

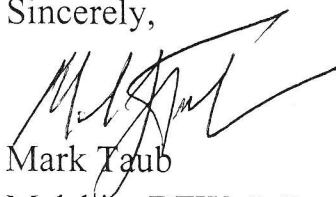

This letter shall serve as a Letter of Recommendation for M. D. McDonald Co., Inc.

We have worked with M. D. McDonald Co., Inc. on multiple projects over the last few years. Our experience and results have been excellent. Without exception, every project has been completed on time and within budget. Additionally, the Company's management and staff are prompt and responsive in addressing issues and requirements that arise during the life of a project. They continually look out for the best interests of their customer, which has resulted in our having a high degree of confidence in their overall performance.

Most importantly, we have found the Company and its staff to operate with integrity and excellent character in their day to day decisions and conduct of their business affairs.

We consider our relationship with M. D. McDonald Co., Inc to be a major asset to, and resource for, our company.

Sincerely,

Mark Taub
